

eCAP: E-Health services in Child and Adolescent Psychiatry

12. September 2018, 09:00-16:00

Linken, Siva Innovasjonssenter Tromsø (Forskningsparken i Breivika)

09:00	Coffee and registration
09:15	Welcome by Einar Bugge , deputy managing director, UNN
09:30	Mathias Halvorsen , Youth Council at University Hospital of North Norway (UNN)
09:45	eCAP: Presentations from the project partners e-CAP DAWBA trial – testing a new way to ensure children and young people get the right service. Phil Wilson, Lucy Thompson, Centre for Rural Health, Univ. of Aberdeen, Scotland
10:45-11:00	Launching a video consultation service to Child Psychiatry in Pohjois-Savo, Finland. Hannele Turunen, Kirsi Bykachev, Univ. of Eastern Finland Break Video consultations at home - so simple and so hard. Erlend Bønes, University Hospital of North Norway (UNN) Promoting mental health in the arctic - professionals' and young people's perspectives. Catrine Kostenius, Technical University of Luleå, Sweden
12:00	Lunch
13:00	Mental Health Youth, a member-based interest organization for children and adolescents. Ingrid Bruun, CEO of Mental Health Youth Ltd
13:30	Videoconference solutions for Child Welfare Institutions. Eirin Rødseth, Section manager, Health Service Development, UNN
14:00	Break
14:20	VIDEOCARE: Decentralised psychiatric emergency care through videoconference. Marianne Trondsen, Senior researcher, Norwegian Centre for E-health Research
14:50	eMeistring and Intromat - technology in mental health services. Kristin Bruvik, Head of Department, eMeistring, Helse Bergen
15:20	Young people mastering mental health issues through chatbots. Petter Bae Brandtzæg, Chief researcher, Sintef